

SUMMER LEISURE.

LIFE AT RICHFIELD SPRINGS.
LADIES' DAY AT THE DRIVING PARK—BALLS AND OTHER ENTERTAINMENTS—GUESTS AT THE HOTELS.

FROM AN OCCASIONAL CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.]

RICHFIELD SPRINGS, Aug. 1.—The season at Richfield is now at its height. Saturday afternoon was taken up by twelve couples. The favors were unique and witty, and the bouquets were designed and painted by Miss Peeta. It was the first of the season, and the excellent music of Mr. Stultz's orchestra contributed much to its success.

President Arthur and party are now announced to arrive on Tuesday. He will take the Kingston route, and surgical transportation facilities, fully becoming the dignity of his highness, he is already been placed at his disposal by the railroad and steamer companies. The Albany Day Line steamers are free, offered, the only restriction being that a couple in which the company says, the President is not included, enter by reason of an order of a member of his cabinet. The President has as sundown a week to stay at the Catskills. The second race was for ponies, three-quarters of a mile distance. There were five entries—Alma, Spica, Blue Dawn, Landmarks and Raina. Alma won the heat. The third race was the Ladies' Day at the Driving Park. The first race was a dash of one mile, for which six horses were entered, Barbadoes, Saturn, Flying Dutchman, Question, El Mundi and Unknown. Barbadoes came in first, Saturn second and Unknown third. The prize consisted of a solid silver cup presented by W. H. Bentzien.

The second race was for ponies, two-thirds of a mile distance. There were five entries—Alma, Spica, Blue Dawn, Landmarks and Raina.

Very early rising is not usually a very popular indulgence among the majority of tourists although it is a common occurrence. It does however turn out well the morning mist to see the sun rise. The mountains is a gorgeous place to sleep through, and many consider a minute or so review up here worth a whole hour of Morphew's embrace down in the cities. But in time for breakfast is the popular practice.

At the Gold Spring House in Stamford many of the guests are even falling a bit short on that score, and of late a forfeit of 5 cents has been imposed upon every transgressor; then the proceeds going to the building fund of the Episcopal Chapel. Miss Hopkins is the fair enfant of the cult, and she says the nickels come in the popular practice.

Stamford is now full of summer visitors, and it well deserves to be. It is a charming little summer village on that east branch of the Delaware. It is also said to be quite a place even in winter. Deputy Attorney General Isaac H. Maynard has a fine residence and grounds there, and Ned Bunting, the story-writer, also has a fine place here.

Mr. Washington is a fine, fat peak near Stamford, and to make its ascent is a joy for men favored by visitors. A good road now leads to the top, where there is a comfortable house in which to spend the night, take lunch or a more substantial meal. The view is superb.

The central Hotel House proprietor at Katerskill Falls, Mr. Schmidt, expects to fire a salute in honor of President Arthur when he comes from an obscure old cabin in which he was born at Katskill on which the gun was turned to the reception.

General John A. Logan, it is said, will pay a visit to the Catskills this summer. New York has gone to Newport. Ex-Governor of New-York, arrived at the Howland Hotel last night. He brought with him a salmon weighing thirty-four pounds which he caught on the Hudson around the 10th instant. He is staying at the Canfield.

The gun was presented to John Thacker, Jr. of Albany, who will invite a party of friends to aid him in eating it.

At the West End Hotel Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baldwin are new guests of the West End Hotel. Mr. Baldwin is best known as the author of "A General Brewster."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. W. Koenig, of Philadelphia, are staying at the Hotel Katskill. Mrs. Koenig is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania.

Miss Hollis, nee James Flood, the California millionaire, is here.

On Saturday evening last Mr. Hatch, of New-York, gave an entertainment at the New American, consisting of recitation and singing.

Louis S. Savier is a guest of the Spring House.

Dr. Barritt, president of the New-York Artistic Society, and professor in Columbia College, called a meeting last Wednesday evening to consider the desirability of organizing a summer school of arts and languages.

Dr. George R. Smith is carrying out preliminaries for a regatta on Canadago Lake, to take place some time in August.

A lawn-tennis tournament will be held in the Spring House park Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Prizes will be offered by Mr. Welch of the New American.

The New American and Spring Houses are filled with guests, so are the Darow and Johnson, the Tuler and Deane Railway, going up, is the proper paper; the charming valley being on this side. On the "tiny Clove road" to difference in the two sides of the valley object of the most intense interest is the middle. That famous notch has two grottoes, each viewing with the other in beauty, romantic and picturesque. The Catskill Mountain Railway runs through a picture-like scene, with comparative ease, both to the powerful locomotives and the crowds of weary travelers.
